

Polyester Loops

Glitches, pops, stutters, and all manner of chemical electro samples and loops are the mainstay of this truly inspired and original sample collection, which includes over 2,000 'Polyester' samples, 500 glitching loops, and 20 hi-velocity super-funked layered drum kits.

Featuring the processed buzzes, clicks, pops and crackles from Jerzy Korzen's studio in Poland, he has created a brilliantly unique collection of loops and ultra responsive drumkit patches that will have producers from all musical genres reaching for the record button. Including percussive sequences, electro-acoustic music loops, dirty resonance, filtered chaos, bass experiments, vocal tweaks and an almost infinite number of combination possibilities for all contemporary music styles – Polyester Loops may well be the unidentifiable inspiration pack that your music has been waiting for!
