

Minimal Synthetic by Felix Bernhardt

Felix Bernhardt is an impulsive, minimal producer who creates slippery, undertermined and sizzling sounds, which have been released to date on German labels such as Hardshower, Kaufe Musik and Afulab – with credits and plays by some of the biggest name Djs such as DJ Hell, Laurent Garnier, and George Morel amongst others. Felix is an upcoming talent, and Loopmasters are very proud to present his collection devoted to the minimal side of House and Techno – Minimal Synthetic.

Pure Minimalist principles have gone into the creation of this original collection, including much micro-processing and software manipulation to create a huge pallete of minimal textures, stings, stabs, hits and soundbeds. Produced from a European/German minimalist perspective – some could argue this is the pure sound of minimal music, and sampling the sounds included in this pack for inclusion in your House and Techno music will certainly provide some of that musical DNA.

The Minimal Synthetic collection includes over 700MB of minimal perfection, with over 1100 individual samples provided, including 350 Loops and 49 ready to play patches for soft samplers including Reason NNXT, Halion, Kontakt, EXS and SFZ.

In detail expect to find 22 'Asia' influenced almost tribal loops, 67 Micro-minimal Bass Loops, 33 Bongo Loops, 127 Minimal Drumloops, 37 'Mini-Beat' Loops, 31 Muzik Loops, 11 Pad loops, 21 SFX Loops, 92 Minimal SFX Loops, 92 SFX Hits, 21 Tones and 50 Minimal Textures.

A large part of this collection is made up of 26 Synthetic 'Kits' which are made up of no less than 665 Single Processed micro- samples and presented in all the usual soft sampler formats. The idea is that you can quickly and easily make your own drumloops and glitched out minimal patterns for percussion or even as synthlines – Felix has taken a long time processing these pure minimal tones and kits – they are very useful.

You also get 21 Patches for the tones, and patches for the SFX sounds and Textures.

"This Library was inspired by pumpin Minimal Techno Sound and was made strictly for the Dancefloor!

Most loops are accrued by the production process from my own tracks. This package is more than a normal loop library its a creative library for DJs Producers and all kind of musicans! Feel the pumpin groove and enjoy !" Felix Bernhardt
