

Light Textures

Light Textures from Loopmasters is a new collection of some superbly sublime pads, atmospheres and textures which collectively represent the lighter side of the audio spectrum.

The collection comprises a great selection of ethereal pads, sweeping atmospheres, lush string pads, bells and chimes, drones and original SFX suitable for many styles of music, and which would also work well on television and movie soundtracks, adverts and any genre requiring deep lush tones and progressions.

All of the samples in this pack are unique and have been created exclusively for this project and they won't be found in any other Loopmasters products or on any synthesizer presets.

We feel the combinations of sounds found on Light Textures are of an unprecedented quality and represent excellent value for those looking for lush tones, large evolving pads and soundscapes or new forms of SFX.
