Formats: Wav Acid Rex2 Ableton Live Pack Apple Loops MPC

Genres : Breakbeat Electro Electronica House Techno

Prime Loops are extremely proud to bring you this highly anticipated release deep from within the closely guarded sonic archives of Lee Coombs studio HQ. Defying boundaries, and ignoring the status quo, Lee Coombs is a heavyweight of dance music's evolution, for over a decade he has been at the forefront of it all, and continues onwards and upwards, with highly sought after production skills, and mind-blowing DJ Sets. One of the most respected producers on the Breakbeat, Tech & Future House scene, a former Finger Lickin' Records heavyweight, he is responsible for huge releases and remixes for artists such as Moby, Paul Okenfold, New Order, Plump DJ's, Meat Katie, Atomic Hooligan and The Freestylers to name but a few. Inside, you will find a hefty selection of 170+ Beefy Drums, Cutting Synths, Fluid FX, Detailed Construction Grooves, Dirty Bass Loops and lots more. A Moog Voyager, Roland 303, and Roland D50 are amongst the multi-tude of hardware synths used to deliver these jaw-dropping sounds, many of which have been used in Lee's personal remixes and productions. Everything produced to his exacting standards and presented exclusively to you in pristine 24-bit audio. If you produce Tech, Electro, Techno, Breakbeat, or Future House, and want to inject the retro sound of the future into your productions, you won't want to miss out on this amazing Sound Suite. Introduce the clubs to your tracks with Lee Coombs Presents: Tech Funk.
