Fusing together Dub, Reggae, Hip Hop, Glitch, Dubstep and Roots Cultures…Dubhop Beats is a unique selection of the finest Dubby Grooves for today’s creative producer. If you like your beats warped, wobbly, glitchy and downright dubby, Dubhop Beats is a subaholic blend of natural flavours made with warm, analogue synthesizers for pure authenticity and maximum flexibility every time. With over 70 individual beats, you won’t be short of inspiration when dropping your next dubplate, remix or studio production, and due to the highly original sounds used to develop this release, this should enable you to effortlessly create diverse and noteworthy scores every time. A wide selection of artists such as Mad Professor, King Tubby, Benga, Israel Vibration, Nightmares on wax, Scientist, Massive Attack, The Glitch Mob, Thievery Corporation and many more have played a large role in the influence of the production of this library, and we have taken into account the evolving music scene to add new and exciting flavours for maximum inspiration through and through. Dubhop Beats is completely royalty free, and available to download in a large variety of formats that have been specifically designed by our highly experienced team to gel perfectly with your music-making platform. We are extremely proud of this release… if you are looking for something to add a new twist to your production, whatever your style, Dubhop Beats is for you!
