Genres : Electronica House Techno Trance Deep House Minimal House Tech House Progressive House

This sample pack is a collection of elements aimed at today's modern house producer. Whether you compose Deep House, Tech House or the bigger sounding main room Techno, there is something here for you. As an artist Jim Rivers always likes to write a variety of music across the House spectrum so that's what he had in mind while producing this. A lot of Jim's music is groove-based so there is a heavy influence of that in the drum loops as well as subtle melodic parts and EFX. Some of the loops will be very useful for those DJ's and producers who like to work or perform on the fly, easily creating grooves and ideas in a creative way. All in all there should be something there for anyone who creates a form of modern house music!

This fresh and exciting samplepack features over 60 House Drumloops between 120-127 BPM, 12 Music Loops, 15 Bass Loops and individual Drum and Percussion Loops processed the Global Underground way so producers can create their own Dancefloor beats with ease.

Sample the sound of one of the hottest producers around, signed to one of the best Dance music labels on the planet!

The Global Underground Sample Series is an expanding collection of sample packs created by GU Artists in conjunction with Loopmasters. Two assurances of quality and inspiration - watch out for more great titles coming soon!
