Sound System vocals are always in demand, indispensable for reggae specials, dub step productions, DnB and Hip Hop remixes. Horseman's fresh and original vocal samples are ready to drag and drop on the fly and bring some sound clash vibes to your mix! Horseman is a notorious old skool toaster from the 80s, in his youth he had his first number one with "Do the Horse Move" for Greensleeves many more classics followed ...A veteran of sound clashes and pirate dub plate radio sessions. Filled with Ragga vocal lines and hooks, this second vocal sample pack from Horseman explodes with Jamaican energy at its best. Whether you are producing the next dance floor hit, rolling a fat film track or are simply looking for some fresh energy to spice up any of your musical productions, Horseman's vocal loops and samples, perfectly recorded by Mike "Prince Fatty" Pelanconi of Drumdrops fame will ignite your tracks, giving feeling and direction. "Wanna vizez up the dance and nice up the place?" — then sample the original and authentic royalty free sound of the Horseman today! Recorded and mixed vintage style with tape echos and compression - clean alternative version supplied. This one is going to be all over tracks worldwide, the sounds are so fresh, unique and full of character. Whether you use them dry, cut up or processed — Horseman comes to toast and won't leave until the party is over and the dust has settled! Note: There are no music or drum samples in this pack. The samples are recorded in Wav format and appear as both dry and effected versions. Using some of the best vintage reverbs and dub delays Dub Drops have included effected versions of the samples, for a true Dancehall Reggae sound, that will also save you time and cpu when dropping into your tracks. Delivering first class reggae and dance hall sounds featuring some of Jamaica's finest talent, Dubdrops Sample Series includes the "Sound System Vocals Series" and "Bubbles and Chops" featuring hammond organ loops, electric guitar and piano chops ...all meticulously recorded using vintage microphones, pre-amps, hammond organs, vintage spring reverbs and more. Coming Soon: Sound System Vocals Vols 3 and 4 — Featuring the legendary Dennis Alcapone! Dennis Alcapone is simply a legend, one of the original pioneers from the 60s. He can be heard on many classics such as "Guns don't Argue" and "DJ's Choice" <http://www.myspace.com/dennisalcapone>
