Formats: Wav Acid Rex2 Reason Refill Apple Loops Kontakt NNXT Battery GarageBand

Genres : Bassline Electro Grime Techno Fidget House Dubstep Garage Dub

BHK takes his production skills to the limit to produce his take on various underground music styles from the UK and beyond. This 24 Bit sample pack features some really great percussion loops, twisted wobbles and deep organ bass lines. All the loops are in Acid wav, Apple Loops, and REX2 formats ready to rock in any modern DAW.

This interesting pack is loaded with a juicy selection of 320 samples ranging from Urban, House, Techno, Electro, Old School Chicago, Dubstep, Fidget and of course UK Funky. The music loops were written to the drum loops featured in this pack to ensure that all the parts can be easily mixed and matched with no fuss. All the loops and drum grooves are all at 135 Bpm.

BHK's UK Mash Up is perfect for making tracks and remix mash ups that require a unique retro yet modern vibe. This pack is great for any kind of underground electronic dance music.

This Industrial Strength pack contains everything you need to get down on the ever growing underground sounds from the UK. With booty bangin drum loops, weird Efx, and infectious low fi stabs. There no telling what new mashed up grooves you could create with this truly fierce sample pack.

BHK's UK Mash Up has additional bonus samples from Derek Nievergelt and Lenny Dee to add that extra flavor to the pack's diverse style and texture. This deadly combination brings you totally usable sounds and freaky sonic bits to add that extra touch to your music production or mash up.

Also included is a cool selection of Battery 3 kits and Kontakt 3 kits; so you can create your own drum beats and synth parts with the wicked selection one shot sounds that are included in this sample pack.

And of course BHK's UK Mash Up is available as a Reason 3 Refill which include 5 NN- XT, 5 Redrum kits and 11 NN-19 kits. The Reason Refill is sold separately.

Just like all the current genres out there now which use different elements to make up a style or genre as a whole, BHK's UK Mash Up combines loads of different elements which you can fuse together to create your own unique electronic music style.
